

European Specialty Examination in Nephrology 2022 Selected Examination Metrics

The 2022-1 ESENeph examination was sat in February 2022 by 355 candidates of whom 110 were self-declared UK trainees and 65 were European candidates (sitting in European centres other than UK centres). Candidates who did not declare their training details and the OTH group are reported as 'Other' (245). In the 2022-2 examination, sat in November 2022, there were 246 sitting candidates, including 72 self-declared UK trainees and 36 European candidates. The 'Other' group had 174 candidates. From 2022 'OTH' self-declared UK trainees are excluded from UK trainees' cohort.

Pass Mark

The ESENeph 2022-1 examination was equated using 2019 UK trainees' performance and the passing score was established at 440. In November 2022, after the standards review based on 2019 UK trainees' performance after excluding OTH group the new passing score was decreased to 422. All future examinations will use 422 as the passing score until the standards are reviewed by the ESENeph Examination Board.

For the 2022-1 examination the pass score of 440 had a correspondent percent of 63% or 126/200 and for the 2022-2 examination the pass score of 422 had a correspondent percent of 65.5% or 131/200.
